

Funded by the European Union

WECOOP

EU – Central Asia Cooperation on Water – Environment – Climate Change

The Clinic Workshop “Renewable Energy in Central Asia: Potential for Small- and Medium-sized Solutions”

18-20 May 2022

Novotel Almaty Hotel, Almaty, Kazakhstan

AGENDA

Day 1: Wednesday, 18 May 2022, 19:00-20:30 (Almaty time, UTC+6)
19:00-19:30	Registration
19:30-20:30	Ice-breaker – drinks and snacks
Day 2: Thursday, 19 May 2022, 09:00-18:00 (Almaty time, UTC+6)
08:30-09:00	Registration
09:00-10:30	Session 1: Background
9:00-9:10	Technical remarks
9:10-9:30	Opening of the workshop and welcome addresses: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Johannes Stenbaek Madsen, Head of Cooperation, EU Delegation to Kazakhstan• Alessandra Fidanza, Senior Expert, Italian Ministry for the Ecological Transition Introduction to the workshop: Valts Vilnītis, Team Leader, WECCOOP project
9:30-10:00	Renewable energy – EU legislation and administrative and economic instruments applied in the EU Vladislav Bizek, WECCOOP Q&A
10:00-10:30	Instruments to attract small and medium scale RES investments Rafal Stanek, WECCOOP Q&A
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-13:00	Session 2: IFIs’ and donors’ co-financing of renewable energy development
11:00-11:25	Financing decarbonization in Central Asia Alibek Abdrakhmanov, ADB
11:25-11:50	Support renewable energy development in Central Asia Bayan Abylkairova, Power Central Asia (USAID)
11:50-12:15	EBRD involvement in renewable energy development in Central Asia Yerlan Ramazanov, EBRD
12:15-12:40	Presentation of SECCA project Paata Janelidze, SECCA
12:40-13:00	Q&A, discussion
13:00-14:30	Lunch

14:30-15:30	Session 3: renewable energy development – practical considerations
14:30-15:15	Environmental impacts and planning implications of wind park development Oskars Beikulis, WECCOOP Q&A
15:15-18:00	Session 4: Renewable energy development – case studies
15:15-15:45	Solar energy in the Czech Republic: Experience 2000-2022 Vladislav Bizek, WECCOOP
14:45-16:15	Creation of the excellence centre – demonstration project of renewable energy in Feștelița, Moldova Rafal Stanek, WECCOOP
16:15-16:45	Coffee break
16:45-17:05	Practical experience in implementing renewable energy projects in Kazakhstan: technical and economic aspects Yernar Bilyalov, Central Asian Renewable Energy Resources Q&A
17:05-17:25	Current state, practice and conditions for the implementation of RES projects in the Kyrgyz Republic Dr Ruslan Isaev
17:25-17:50	Q&A, discussion
17:50-18:00	Closing remarks for Day 2
Day 3: Friday, 20 May 2022, 09:00-13:00 (Almaty time, UTC+6)
9:00-11:00	Session 5: Interactive group work
9:00-9:15	Introduction and tasks for group work
9:15-10:15	Work in 3-4 groups – interactive discussions (formulation of project ideas in CA countries)
10:15-10:30	Reports from the working groups
10:30-11:00	Open discussion
11:00-11:30	Coffee Break
11:30-13:00	Closing Session
11:30-12:00	Renewable energy – potential in Central Asia Anarkul Sultangaziyeva, Green Energy Public Foundation, Green Alliance of Kyrgyzstan
12:00-12:50	Open discussion
12:50-13:00	Closing of the event Snejana Popova, EU Delegation to Kazakhstan
13:00	Lunch